

Wayfaring Stranger - Bill Monroe & Peter Rowan

A well-known spiritual/folk song about a plaintive soul on the journey through life. The journey the singer speaks of is the trials and tribulations of life. Home is the final reward of reuniting with loved ones in Heaven in the afterlife. Often sung right after the Bluegrass Boys would play Walls of Time

INTRO: Am Dm Am

VERSE

I'm just a poor wayfaring stranger
Traveling through, this world alone
There's no sickness, toil nor danger
In that bright land, to which I go

CHORUS

I'm going there to see my father
I'm going there no more to roam
I'm only going over Jordan
I'm only going over home

VERSE

I know dark clouds will gather o'er me
I know my way is rough and steep
Yet beautiful fields lie just before me
Where God's redeemed, their vigils keep

CHORUS

I'm going there to see my mother
She said she'd meet me when I come
I'm just a going over Jordan
I'm just a going over home

VERSE

I want to wear a crown of Glory
When I get home to that good land
I want to shout Salvation's story
In concert with the Blood-Washed Band

CHORUS

I'm going there to meet my Savior
To sing his praise forever more
I'm just a going over Jordan
I'm just a going over home
